

Hawaii FY2017 AmeriCorps State & National Grant Awards

Corporation for National and Community Service

Below is the FY2017 AmeriCorps grant funding breakdown for Hawaii. State formula and state competitive funding will be awarded to the Governor-appointed Hawaii Commission on National and Community Service. Hawaii AmeriCorps members will also receive post-service Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards to help pay for post-secondary education or pay down student loans. These funding streams all factor into the total award received, shown here:

Funding Type	Amount
State Formula	$645,437
State Competitive	$2,063,891
Education Awards	$1,552,636
Total CNCS Funding Awarded	$4,261,964

In addition to the federal funding from CNCS, these AmeriCorps grantees will leverage an additional $6,845,841 in matching support and other resources. Together, they will engage a total of 490 AmeriCorps members in national service.

The following table outlines the successful AmeriCorps grantees in Hawaii. Details include the name and location of the program, funding amounts, and number of AmeriCorps members serving.
